EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH AUGUST 2024

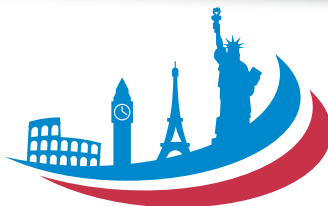

Erick Holman
RECREATION AID

Erick has been an asset in supporting the gapped positions within MWR including various Recreation Aids and even the Information Technology Specialist position. He has helped with numerous IT outages and support for various staff. He helped deploy the tech refresh for the Library program as well as the new point of sale computers that were received in August. He has helped to ensure computers stay up to date across all facilities and even assisted new members of our team get set up on the computer for the first time. Erick has worked to support both the Bowling and Theater facilities during the staffing shortages this summer and is always looking for ways to help ensure our programs have the support they need. Thank you, Erick, for all that you do for MWR!
